Magill - Vanier
College of Arts and Sciences Academic Engagement Scholarship

This $2000 scholarship is intended to benefit junior and senior students who have invested and engaged in their education through research, classroom participation, extracurricular involvement, academic event attendance, or other activities. This is both a need and merit-based scholarship to recognize the hard work and dedication of one student by providing $1000 for the Fall semester, and $1000 for the Spring semester. This scholarship also looks to aid students whose financial need is not being met through other venues.

In order to qualify, students must:

- Be an undergraduate student in the College of Arts and Sciences who will have reached the status of Junior by Fall 2018.
- Have a 2.75 or higher GPA when applying.
- Be a First-Generation college student
- Demonstrate financial need

To apply:

- 1. Provide a resume, emphasizing work experience and academic engagement
- 2. Provide a 200 word statement explaining your financial need
- 3. Answer the following question using an 800-1000 word essay

How have you actively engaged in your education?
